[1] Including off-balance sheet loans directly funded by our funding partners.

[2] Outstanding borrowers are borrowers who have outstanding loans as of a particular date.

[3] Cumulative number of borrowers are borrowers who have drawn down credit on or prior to a particular date, on a cumulative basis.

[4] Active borrowers are borrowers who have drawn down credit in the specified period.

[5] M1+ Delinquency Rate by Vintage is defined as the total balance of outstanding principal of a vintage for which any installment payment is over 30 calendar days past due as of a particular date (adjusted to reflect total amount of recovered past due payments for principal and without taking into account charge-offs), divided by the total initial principal in such vintage.

Third Quarter 2018 Financial Highlights:

- Total revenues increased by 32.9% year-on-year to RMB1,928.9 million (US$280.9 million)
 - Loan facilitation income and others increased substantially year-on-year to RMB337.9 million (US$49.2 million) from RMB100.8 million
 - Financing income was RMB960.2 million (US$139.8 million), compared with RMB1,053.9 million for the same period last year
 - Sales income generated by the Dabai Auto business was RMB586.1 million (US$85.3 million), compared to nil in the third quarter of 2017

- Non-GAAP net income^[6] increased by 4.7% year-on-year to RMB694.3 million (US$101.1 million), or RMB2.17 (US$0.32) per diluted ADS; Excluding a non-recurring foreign exchange loss of RMB52.8 million (US$7.7 million), our non-GAAP net income would have been RMB747.1 million (US$108.8 million)

[6] For more information on this non-GAAP financial measure, please see the table captioned "Unaudited Reconciliation of GAAP and Non-GAAP Results" set forth at the end of this press release.

“We are pleased to report another quarter of solid results,” said Mr. Min Luo, Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Qudian. “We further solidified our leading position in the online small consumer lending industry as the number of our registered users continued to grow, reaching 70 million as of the end of the third quarter. In particular, we continued to deliver a better service experience and set costs to borrowers at a highly competitive level, which drove an increase of more than 580,000 new active users to our platform in the third quarter with zero incremental marketing costs, even after the termination of user engagement on paid Alipay dedicated channel. With 70.0 million registered users and 29.1 million credit approved users, Qudian has an extensive user base and is well-positioned to serve more users directly. Accordingly, we recently launched our credit referral channel for excess traffic and partnered with 10 leading financial service platforms to offer our unserved users a broader spectrum of financial products and services.”

“With a focus on risk-adjusted profitability, we have further scaled down our budget car financing business as we emphasize our core small consumer credit businesses. Looking ahead, amidst the challenging regulatory environment, we are excited by the opportunities presented by our very flexible ‘on-balance sheet + off-balance sheet + referral business’ model to provide affordable credit to millions of users who are underserved by traditional financial institutions,” Mr. Luo concluded.

“We continued to deliver strong results with improved profitability in our core consumption credit businesses,” said Mr. Carl Yeung, Chief Financial Officer of Qudian. “If we had excluded a non-recurring foreign exchange loss of RMB52.8 million, our non-GAAP net income would have been RMB747.1 million for this quarter. We successfully grew our loan book by 17.7% year-over-year to RMB15.3 billion, while credit quality showed strong resilience, with delinquency rates for new loans originated this year remaining within our expectations. We were pleased to see our user base continue to experience solid growth, even with the termination of paid Alipay marketing, which resulted in a 36.1% year-on-year decline in marketing costs. Additionally, we maintained stable institutional funding sources and sufficient cash reserves, with funding costs further decreasing year-over-year by 29.0%. During this quarter, we entered into new funding arrangements with six regulated and licensed institutional funding partners. Looking ahead, we believe our strong asset quality and cash position will help us achieve sustainable future growth as we continue to explore emerging opportunities to further monetize our large user base.”

“Going into the fourth quarter, we expect macro economic challenges and uncertainties to continue. Yet, as demonstrated by our solid track record, we believe that our technology-based and data-driven approach will continue to enable us to navigate within the deep pocket of users and keep credit quality within manageable ranges. Accordingly, we expect our outstanding loan balance to grow sustainably and to meet our full year non-GAAP net income guidance of RMB2.5 billion, excluding non-recurring costs and charges.”

“We continued to purchase company shares in the open market given the visible disconnect between company’s value and fundamentals. As of November 21, 2018, we have purchased approximately US$240.9 million worth of shares under the repurchase plan announced in December 2017. In addition, our board of directors approved an extension of the current US$300 million repurchase program for another year as a sign of confidence in our business operations.”

Third Quarter 2018 Financial Results

Total revenues were RMB1,928.9 million (US$280.9 million), an increase of 32.9% from RMB1,451.0 million for the same quarter of 2017, mainly driven by growth of revenues from sales income generated by Dabai Auto business and loan facilitation income and others, partially offset by a decrease in revenue from sales commission fees.

Financing income totaled RMB960.2 million (US$139.8 million), a decrease of 8.9% from RMB1,053.9 million for the same quarter of 2017, due to a decrease in on-balance sheet transactions.

Loan facilitation income and others substantially increased to RMB337.9 million (US$49.2 million) from RMB100.8 million for the same quarter of 2017, as a result of a substantial increase in off-balance sheet transactions and the adoption of ASC 606 Revenue from contracts with customers, effective January 1, 2018. Prior to the adoption of ASC 606, loan facilitation service income was limited to the amount that is not contingent on the delivery of the undelivered post origination services. Upon adoption of ASC 606, the total consideration is allocated between the loan facilitation service and post origination services performance obligations. Loan facilitation service income is recognized when the service is rendered, i.e. successfully matching borrowers with institutional funding partners. The amount recognized is limited to the amount of variable consideration that is probable not to be reversed in future periods. Accordingly, the timing of revenue recognition for loan facilitation service income collected in periodical instalments will be recognized earlier under ASC 606. The adoption of ASC 606 resulted in an increase of RMB122.6 million (US$17.8 million) in loan facilitation income for the third quarter of 2018.

Sales income was RMB586.1 million (US$85.3 million) compared to nil in the third quarter of 2017 as a result of the launch of the new Dabai Auto business.

Sales commission fees decreased by 87.9% to RMB35.7 million (US$5.2 million) from RMB294.8 million for the same quarter of 2017, as a result of a decrease in the gross merchandise value relating to the merchandise credit business.

Total operating costs and expenses increased by 62.3% to RMB1,229.0 million (US$178.9 million) from RMB757.5 million for the same quarter of 2017.

Cost of revenues increased substantially to RMB698.5 million (US$101.7 million) from RMB258.9 million for the same quarter of 2017, primarily due to costs incurred by the Dabai Auto business, partially offset by a decrease in funding costs associated with our core online consumer finance businesses.

Sales and marketing expenses decreased by 36.1% to RMB120.1 million (US$17.5 million) from RMB187.9 million for the third quarter of 2017. The decrease was primarily due to a significant decrease in sales and marketing expenses for our core online small consumer credit businesses as a result of a significant increase in repeated transactions directly on our apps and termination of paid marketing through Alipay's dedicated channel for online third-party service providers, partially offset by an increase in expenses associated with the new Dabai Auto business.

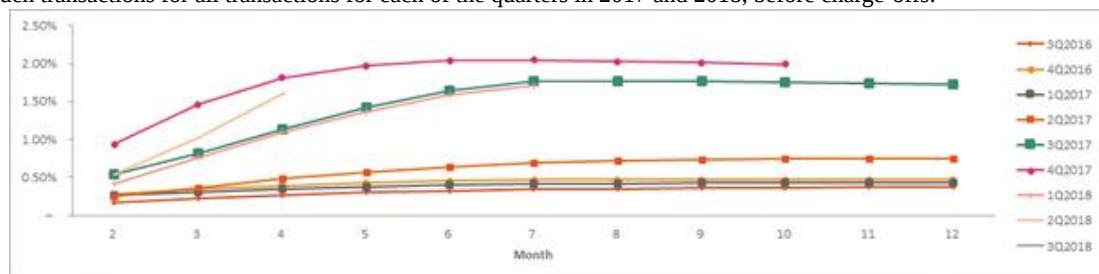

General and administrative expenses were RMB48.2 million (US$7.0 million), flat from RMB51.1 million for the third quarter of 2017.

Research and development expenses decreased by 21.7% to RMB41.2 million (US$6.0 million) from RMB52.7 million for the third quarter of 2017.

Provision for loan principal, financing service fee receivables and other receivables increased by 73.7% to RMB292.4 million (US$42.6 million) from RMB168.4 million for the third quarter of 2017. The increase was primarily due to an increase in the loan balance and M1+ overdue loan principals and financing services fees receivables.

As of September 30, 2018, the total balance of outstanding principal and financing service fee receivables for on-balance sheet transactions for which any installment payment was more than 30 calendar days past due was RMB435.5 million (US$63.4 million), and the balance of allowance for principal and financing service fee receivables at the end of the period was RMB515.7 million (US$75.1 million), indicating M1+ Delinquency Coverage Ratio of 1.2x.

The following chart displays the historical lifetime cumulative M1+ Delinquency Rate by Vintage from the second month after credit drawdowns up to the twelfth month after such transactions for all transactions for each of the quarters in 2017 and 2018, before charge-offs:

Income from operations was RMB702.8 million (US$102.3 million), flat from the third quarter of 2017.

Net income attributable to Qudian's shareholders increased by 5.1% to RMB683.8 million (US$99.6 million), or RMB2.13 (US$0.31) per diluted ADS, compared to RMB650.7 million, or RMB2.20 per diluted ADS, for the third quarter of 2017.

Non-GAAP Net income attributable to Qudian shareholders increased by 4.7% to RMB694.3 million (US$101.1 million), or RMB2.17 (US$0.32) per diluted ADS, compared to RMB663.3 million, or RMB2.24 per diluted ADS, for the third quarter of 2017.

As of September 30, 2018, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of RMB2,754.4 million (US$401.1 million) and restricted cash of RMB1,183.3 million (US$172.3 million).

For the third quarter of 2018, net cash provided by operating activities was RMB1,378.8 million (US$200.8 million), mainly attributable to net income of RMB683.8 million (US$99.6 million) and a decrease in other current and non-current assets of RMB292.6 million (US$42.6 million) and an increase in other current and non-current liabilities of RMB189.1 million (US$27.5 million). Net cash provided by investing activities was RMB643.4 million (US$93.7 million), mainly due to proceeds from collection of loan principal of RMB9,065.9 million (US$1,320.0 million) and proceeds from redemption of short-term investments of RMB250.7 million (US$36.5 million), partially offset by payments to originate loan principal of RMB8,265.5 million (US$1,203.5 million) and payments to originate finance lease receivables of RMB518.9 million (US$75.5 million). Net cash used in financing activities was RMB2,451.8 million (US$357.0 million), mainly due to repayments of borrowings of RMB4,031.0 million (US$586.9 million) and repurchase of ordinary shares of RMB303.8 million (US$44.2 million), partially offset by proceeds from borrowings of RMB1,805.9 million (US$262.9 million).

Our board of directors has approved to extend the repurchase program for another year, until November 25, 2019.

The above outlook is based on current market conditions and reflects the Company's preliminary expectations as to market conditions, its regulatory and operating environment, as well as customer demand, all of which are subject to change.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We use adjusted net income, a non-GAAP financial measure, in evaluating our operating results and for financial and operational decision-making purposes. We believe that adjusted net income helps identify underlying trends in our business by excluding the impact of share-based compensation expenses, which are non-cash charges. We believe that adjusted net income provides useful information about our operating results, enhances the overall understanding of our past performance and future prospects and allows for greater visibility with respect to key metrics used by our management in its financial and operational decision-making.

Adjusted net income is not defined under U.S. GAAP and are not presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP. This non-GAAP financial measure has limitations as analytical tools, and when assessing our operating performance, cash flows or our liquidity, investors should not consider them in isolation, or as a substitute for net loss / income, cash flows provided by operating activities or other consolidated statements of operation and cash flow data prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

We mitigate these limitations by reconciling the non-GAAP financial measure to the most comparable U.S. GAAP performance measure, all of which should be considered when evaluating our performance.

For more information on this non-GAAP financial measure, please see the table captioned "Unaudited Reconciliation of GAAP and Non-GAAP Results" set forth at the end of this press release.
